"The Parish of Saint Mary's is committed to the safety, well being and dignity of all children and vulnerable adults".

"Though many we are one."

One in faith and one in the Gospel values of hospitality and welcome, compassion and justice.

From the desk of the Parish Priest Fr Brendan

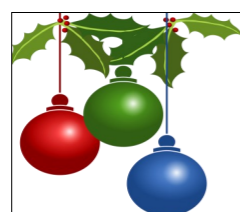

Dear Parishioners,

What is the secret of joy in the midst of disturbing and scary situations. About a year ago, four Missionaries of Charity sisters and twelve helpers at a home for the poorest elderly, were slaughtered by ISIS militants in Aden in Yemen. Their heads were cut off, as prescribed by the Koran. One sister survived, Sr Sally, MC. She has no hatred or bitterness, but a joy that God is with her. The sisters had the chance to flee, but decided to stay with the poor people who needed them. One sister, who died, wrote these words two months before. "I surrendered my life to God, and from that moment, I was just ready to die at any time. There and then fear left me; and my faith in Him increased and strengthened. I said to Jesus, I know that nothing happens without your knowledge. I believe that there is no evil power above your mighty power. I beg your powerful protection of your most precious Blood over us, and all the poor people here, and the protection of our mother Mary too. I don't want to be separated from you. Remove completely fear in each of the sisters and protect us with your power and fill us with your peace and Holy Spirit".

What heroic faith those sisters had. Our troubles are small by comparison, but the same Saviour is among us. He lives in us so that we can bring His presence to our world today. Let us allow God to move in and through us. Our Christmas God comes to us today as he did 2000 years ago.

Happy Christmas to everyone, and thankyou for your welcome and support. Thanks to all who contribute to St Mary's in any way to help make us a tiny part of the Kingdom of God.

God bless you all and your families too,
Fr. Brendan

A big thankyou to all who have contributed so much to our Parish during 2017

Monday Morning Helpers

We are starting a new group in the parish. If you would like to enjoy the company of other parishioners, you're invited to come along, have a cuppa, and help the parish with tasks as needed. The group will meet at 10am on a Monday. If you are interested, please add your name to the sign-up sheet in the foyer of the Church and you will be contacted by the parish office in February.
